To Whom It May Concern:

GoToMeeting is the easiest way to organize and attend online meetings. Patented technology enables coworkers, customers and prospects to view any application running on your PC in real time.

With GoToMeeting, it's easy to conduct on-the-fly or scheduled Tech Support for our clients and perform live support in real time.

The service is free to our clients so that we can provide you with the best Support necessary. Your support Technician send you a join request via email when ever you call in for a problem, or support question.

Sincerely,

Jason Mayr
